Determination

This claim is denied due to a coding inconsistency (adjustment reason CO-4; remark N519). The procedure code is inconsistent with the modifier used: CPT 74177 was billed without the modifier required to identify the professional component.

Review the coding and submit a corrected claim. No formal appeal is necessary if a corrected claim is submitted within the timely filing limit.

Your appeal rights

If you believe the original coding was correct, you may appeal within 180 calendar days of this notice with documentation supporting the code and modifier combination billed. Submit via the Atlas provider portal referencing the ICN above.

Sincerely,
